

Daniel Carroll to Thomas Jefferson, April 6, 1791, from Thomas Jefferson and the National Capital. Edited by Saul K. Padover.

Daniel Carroll to Jefferson

George Town Ap r. 6th. 1791

Sir,

The inclosed for Mr Madison is open for yr perusal & information.

The prospect before us respecting the great object of the Seat of Govt is pleasing at present here.—I shall have occasion probably at times to communicate to you what may occur, & shall embrace every occasion of assuring you that I am,

Sr with very great regard & esteem, Yr respectful & obt Servt

Danl Carroll

P.S.—I expect we shall in a few days proceed to take proper deeds.

[Ms., Jefferson Papers, Library of Congress.]